THE HOURS

We ask you to work 15hrs during the festival. The rest of the time is your own.

Most stewards do three 5 hour shifts on the Friday, Saturday and Sunday. (some people working in the campsite with do a Thursday shift and have a day off over the festival.)

We have a limited number of spaces for car park set up stewarding. These are two 7.5hr shifts worked on the Thursday and Friday, giving you Saturday and Sunday completely free to enjoy the music.

You also need to come to a 2 hour training session. These are held on the Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 6.30pm. You only need to come to one session.

FOOD AND DRINK

Stewards get one free meal for each shift you work.

The Steward Cafe - is based in the steward campsite. This will have a range of snacks sold at cheap prices - hot drinks will be free.

There will be evening open mic sessions in the cafe too.

CAMPING

We have a stewards campsite where you can camp free of charge. If you've friends or family who are camping in the main campsites you can camp with them.

Caravans are not allowed at Guilfest, and if you plan to bring a campervan please let us know in advance.

No deposit needed - We are one of the few festivals who don't ask you to pay a deposit up front to be a steward.

BENEFITS OF STEWARDING

Stewarding is a great way to enjoy a great festival without spending a lot of money.

A weekend ticket with camping costs £130.

For 15hrs work you effectively get a weekend ticket, plus a meal a day, and you'll also get a free festival programme.

It's a great way to meet new people - but also fun to do with your mates. If you tell us the names of friends you are coming with, we'll make sure you do similar shifts, so you can spend your free time together.

Some of our organising team started out stewarding and worked their way up - so if you are planning a career in events Guilfest is great experience.

FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT GUILFEST STEWARDING

In its 21 year history Guilfest has grown from a one day Folk and Blues Festival to the three day extravaganza it is these days.

Guilfest is a truly independent festival, and one of the few festivals that runs its own stewarding. We feel this helps to create more of a family feel.

Sunday at Guilfest is steward fancy dress day.

Our stewarding philosophy is simple. We need to make sure we look after our stewards properly if we expect them to look after our customers properly.

- There are two steward control points and a team of head stewards who can offer support to volunteer stewards.
- Essential things like ponchos, sun cream, torches, radios, gloves and tabards are provided.
- Meal tickets are provided for each shift worked, hot drinks are freely available, and the Steward Cafe will offer snacks at cost price.
- A dedicated steward campsite is provided for added security. This has water and toilets.
- We have a great deal for stewards at the Activezone Gym (adjacent to the site). A hot shower for a pound.
- St. John Ambulance are on site 24hrs a day for any first aid issues.
- The steward training session covers fire safety, general health and safety and basic first aid.

BASIC RULES TO BE AWARE OF

- No dogs on site
- No glass on site
- No open fires (small bbqs allowed)
- No alcohol to be brought into the main arena (over 18s can take alcohol into the campsites)
- Stewards must be at least 18yrs old on or before 18th July 2014
- Guilfest operates a zero tolerance to illegal drugs - don't bring them or use them.
- Stewards must at all times act responsibly and observe good health and safety practice.

Whilst doing all we can to look after stewards we do expect stewards to turn up on time for their shifts and work to the best of their ability.

Stewards are the friendly face of Guilfest and every year customers tell us how friendly and helpful our steward team are.
